Poetry Prize

My Life's World

Nothing is worse than lockdown
Except being alone
It turns my heart to stone
Talks about mood
Talks about tone
If I don't read to the class,
I sigh and moan
Being back at school is great!
Morning maths is at 9
Don't be late.

By Zubair

Here are some examples of the exciting learning from around the school this week. We are delighted to hear that Zubair has won a prize for the poem he wrote during lockdown last year. He will be attending an award ceremony where he will be awarded a prize from authors Polly Ho-Yen and Ken Wilson-Max. It was National poetry Day yesterday and across the school, classes heard and shared poems. Maybe you could recite a poem you know to your classmates or at home?

Parents' News

The Oral Health Team will be conducting a virtual Oral Health session for Parents and Carers of Mayflower

Next Thursday, 14th October 2021 9:30am – 10:00 am via Teams. The link has been pinged to you.

At this session they will

- ◆ Show and explain effective tooth brushing and use of fluoride toothpaste.
- ◆ Show you how to encourage children to eat healthy foods which contributes to healthy teeth and a healthy body.
- ◆ Tell you about the importance of dental visits.
- ◆ Explain what fluoride varnish is and what it does to protect teeth.

Parents visited the Children and Family Centre in Kerby Street this week. Have you called in yet to see what services your family could access?
